

Ms Beth Delaney
Assistant Secretary
Private Sector, Development Finance and Agricultural Development Branch
Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade

Ms Beth Delaney leads the Private Sector, Development Finance and Agricultural Development Branch (PXB) of the Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT). PXB provides broad policy oversight and specialist advice on private sector development and engagement, development financing, extractive resources, food security and agriculture.

Ms Delaney has worked for the Australian Government since 1996 in a range of policy and corporate positions. Ms Delaney was an adviser to the Australian Foreign Minister from 2002-2004, an adviser to the Executive Director at the World Bank from 2010-2013 and until recently an adviser to Australia's Director at the Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank. She has held overseas assignments in Beijing, Bougainville and Washington DC.

Ms Delaney holds a Bachelor of Economics (Hons.) from the Australian National University.